

Reagecon

A CALIBRE SCIENTIFIC COMPANY

November 2024

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to confirm that all products which are manufactured by Reagecon, do not require CE Marking. CE Marking is not required for Chemicals, while our products are not covered by the European CE marking directives they still fall within the scope of REACH. This requires our products to be safe but does not require CE marking.

Yours sincerely,

Sarah Ingle

Compliance Manager
